

95.7 THE GAME - REPORTER

Do you have a passion for covering the world of sports? Do you possess the know how to develop relationships and inside sources with local sports organizations? Are you flexible enough to secure and edit sound, produce and send back audio reports, write daily blogs, be active in social media via Twitter and Facebook and step in and host talk shows or deliver compelling sports updates when the situation calls for it?

95.7 The Game in San Francisco is looking for a hard working, passionate Reporter to cover the Bay Area sports scene. The ability to follow multiple teams/sports and deliver accurate news is a must. Prior experience reporting, hosting and interacting with professional athletes is preferred.

If you have a true passion for digging for information and building relationships with agents, players and coaches, rush your resume and MP3 work to www.entercom.com and click on "Careers". No phone calls please. Entercom Communications is an equal opportunity employer.